About Mason

History of Mason

On June 1, 1803, Revolutionary War veteran William Mason paid $1,700 at auction to purchase 640 acres of land in what is now downtown Mason. In 1815, he platted 16 lots on this land and named the village "Palmira." In 1832, 2 years after the death of William Mason and according to his will, over 40 more lots were platted on the north, south, and west of Palmira. When the plat was officially recorded, the name of the village was listed as "Palmyra."

In 1835, a petition was sent to the federal post office to correct the name of the town. It had been listed as Kirkwood, possibly an error because the postmaster at the time was William Kirkwood. When village officials were informed that there was another Palmyra in Ohio, the name was officially changed to "Mason." Mason remained a small farming community for another 125 years. In 1970, a year before the town was incorporated to become a city, there were fewer than 5,700 residents. Today, the City of Mason covers over 11,200 acres and is home to nearly 25,000 people and approximately 500 businesses. (Historical information from Around Mason, Ohio: A Story, by Rose Marie Springman.)

The City of Mason continues to draw upon its history as it eagerly anticipates the future. It is increasingly being recognized as a rapidly growing, progressive community with an attractive industrial base. Known as a business-friendly community, it stands ready to work with developers and business owners to create a carefully planned and attractive community that serves both residents and businesses. The number of new businesses regularly looking to locate in Mason and the expansion of existing enterprises confirms Mason's success. Cintas Corporation, Mitsubishi, Procter & Gamble's Health Care Research Center, and Luxottica Retail are among the premier companies located in Mason.

Mason is also recognized as the resort area of southwest Ohio. Paramount's Kings Island Amusement Park, The Beach Waterpark, and The Golf Center at Kings Island are among the prominent recreation destinations in Mason. Mason is home to the world-recognized Tennis Masters Series-Cincinnati as well as several well-loved local annual events. The Alverta Green Museum, operated by the Mason Historical Society, keeps the city in touch with its historical roots.

Mason has preserved its small town charm, but maintains a high level of municipal services and a prestigious corporate community. Over $50 million in utility and infrastructure projects have prepared the city for the ongoing growth

A combination of fortunate location, far-sighted city leadership, innovative management, outstanding schools, successful corporations, and a close-knit traditional community have succeeded in building a progressive, polished city with a comfortable hometown feel.

Mason's community theme campaign, "imagine Mason," embodies this outlook by capturing the essence of a city that continues to reflect on the past while creating the future.

City Government

FORM OF GOVERNMENT

The City of Mason operates under a council – city manager form of government, which combines the strong political leadership of elected officials with the strong managerial experience of an appointed local government manager. General legislative power lies with City Council, the elected representatives of the citizens. Council hires the City Manager to be the government's full-time Chief Administrative Officer.

The city council consists of seven members of the community who are elected at-large to serve staggered four-year terms. Half of council is elected every two years. The council establishes law and policy by passing ordinances and resolutions. The Council also appoints the city manager, adopts the city budget, approves appropriations and contracts in the city's name, and levies taxes. The mayor is elected by Council, from among its members, for a two-year term and presides at City Council meetings. Council also appoints the clerk of council and law director.

The city manager oversees the daily operations of the city, implements council objectives, oversees the staff, prepares the annual budget and administers it after adoption by council, keeps Council advised on the financial needs of the city, and supervises the purchase of all materials, supplies, and equipment. The city manager is not expected to perform all these duties alone, and hires qualified individuals to help with specific tasks.

COUNCIL MEETINGS

City Council meetings are open to the public and held on the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:00 p.m. in City Council Chambers on the first floor of the Mason Municipal Center, 6000 Mason-Montgomery Road.

Taped meetings are televised on Warner Cable, channel 15, starting the Friday following the

Community Information

Monday Council meeting. Air times are Friday at 10:00 p.m., Saturday at 8:00 p.m., Sunday at 11:00 a.m. and Monday at 7:00 p.m.

The meeting agenda is available in the city manager's office on the Friday prior to the meeting, on the City Council Agenda Hotline at 513-229-8502, and on the specific meeting day on the City Calendar. The actions taken by council are available on the City Calendar and on the hotline after noon on the Tuesday after the meeting.

COUNCIL ACTIONS

There are several types of actions considered by Council during the meetings.

Ordinances are formal enactments of laws. They include regulations, purchases of equipment, authorization of contracts, and other formal action.

Resolutions are non-regulatory actions by Council and are used to recognize noteworthy accomplishments or events, to state the intentions of Council, or to request action from other legislative bodies.

Proclamations are ceremonial acts, usually to proclaim an event recognized in the City of Mason.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

Public Hearings are required by the Ohio Revised Code for certain proposed changes to the Mason City Code, zoning map, use permits, and other issues. They provide an opportunity for citizens' views to be heard. Notices to adjacent residents are mailed by the city and public hearings are advertised in the legal section of the Pulse-Journal or the Community Press newspapers. Any resident may attend a public hearing.

Executive Sessions are closed meetings of City Council. They may be held only for the purposes specifically provided by law: discussion of specific personnel cases, disposition of publicly held property, investment of public funds, and consultation with legal counsel regarding pending litigation. No formal action is taken in an executive session.

Work Sessions are meetings of the full council to discuss matters coming before the council. They allow more time for in-depth review and discussion than would be available in a normal council meeting. Work sessions are open to the public. No formal action is taken in a work session.
